

CC & Partners S.r.l. and Drag S.r.l. formalize a commitment to subscription of the capital increase

Cagliari, June 14, 2023

Tessellis S.p.A. informs that today it has received two expressions of commitment irrevocable to subscribe a portion of the shares arising from the capital increase approved by the Board of Directors last May 11, 2023 ("Capital Increase.Capital").

Specifically, the Company received:

- a letter from CC & Soci S.r.l., in which the latter committed itself irrevocably to subscribe the shares arising from the Capital Increase, for an amount of Euro 1 million. CC & Soci S.r.l. will underwrite any shares remaining unopted as a result of the rights offering on the stock exchange pursuant to Art. 2441, paragraph 3, of the Civil Code, by the second open market day following the conclusion of the stock market offering of the unopted. The underwriting commitment of CC & Soci.

S.r.l. is not supported by guarantees.

- a letter from Drag S.r.l., a company in which CEO Davide Rota owns 70 percent of the capital, in which the latter has irrevocably committed to subscribe the shares arising from the Capital Increase, in the amount of Euro 150.000. As of today's date, Drag S.r.l. owns a stake equal to 0.24 percent of the share capital of Tessellis. Drag S.r.l. will fulfill its commitment by subscribing to the option rights to which it is entitled. Drag S.r.l.'s underwriting commitment is not supported by guarantees.

Both subscription commitments are subject to the condition that the subscription price subscription is no higher than Euro 0.50 per share.

The Company informs that there are ongoing interlocutions with other shareholders, as well as with institutional third parties, who have expressed an interest in the subscription of the capital increase. The Company will promptly notify the market in the event that other commitments to subscribe to the capital increase are formalized.
